Focus Interacting with a partner

- 1 In Part 2 of the test you will need to discuss a topic with your partner. To do this, you will need to show that you can do the following. Put the expressions below under the correct heading.

Tip! Make sure you use what your partner says and respond to it.

agree	disagree	give reasons	make suggestions	a

How about you? You're right. I'm not sure about that. Let's ... I think so too. Do you think ...
 That's a great idea. That's not such a good idea. Why don't we ...? ... because so ...
 What do you think about ...? That's a good idea, isn't it? What if ...?

- 2  43 Listen to Kevin and Jasmine talking about advertising a school concert and complete the conversation. Their teacher has suggested the following ways of letting people know about the concert.

2 43 Listen to Kevin and Jasmine talking about advertising a school concert and complete the conversation. Their teacher has suggested the following ways of letting people know about the concert.

posters around the town emails to parents notices in school leaflets to pupils

Kevin: Hi Jasmine. So (0) let's talk about how we can let people know about our school concert.

Jasmine: OK. (1) putting up posters? That's a good idea,

Kevin: (3) about that (4) we'd need to have them made - that could cost a lot. (5) writing something on the computer instead? Do (6)

Jasmine: (7) - our teacher could check it and then we can print it. Oh, but (8) everyone takes them home and then forgets to give them to their parents?

Kevin: Oh, (9) OK, (10) ask our teacher if she'll send out emails to parents.

Jasmine: Yes, and we can also put a few notices around school.

3 Talk with your partner about what makes a successful school concert that everyone will enjoy. Think about the following ideas for the concert.

classical music pop bands a play a musical

Remember!

You will need to keep this discussion going for two to three minutes.

Tip!

If you have time, try to summarise the reasons for your final choice at the end of Part 2.

“What do you say when your English teacher is crying?
There, their, they are”
